What is lifestyle creep? How do we save without being completely miserable? And how do we prepare to secure a mortgage?

On the Real Health podcast this week, I speak to Eoin McGee, financial planner and presenter of the tv show, "the complaints bureau," which premieres on RTE One this Thursday.

Real Health Podcast: What to do when things don't go your way, with Buddhist teacher Haemin Sunim

Mon 6 May 2024 at 06:55

Life isn't all sunshine and rainbows. What should you do when things don't go your way? How should you react? And why should we look at problems as challenges?

On this week's episode of the Real Health podcast, I am joined by Zen Buddhist teacher, author of 'The Things That You See Only When You Slow Down', international bestseller, Haemin Sunim, who has written a book titled 'When Things Don't Go Your Way.'

I asked the Buddhist teacher to explain the 'a-ha' and 'ouch' moments
